

Matt Pisane

www.mattpisane.com /

Graphic Design /

matt@mattpisane.com /

(908) 295-2165 /

Objective

Contribute to the growth of a creative and energetic company by obtaining a position that will allow my knowledge of design and passion for the field to flourish.

Experience

Condé Nast Publications, New York, NY, 04/08–Present
Designer, Gourmet magazine

Creation of marketing materials including: look books, inbook advertisements, assorted promotional event collateral and online photography selection.

The Little Clothesline, Millington, NJ, 07/07–Present
Designer

Web site design, brand concept and apparel graphics for self-run company. Coordinated e-commerce integration, photo shoot and marketing plan for official Spring '08 launch of online retail business (thelittleclothesline.com).

HarperCollins Publishers, New York, NY, 04/05-07/07
Designer

Worked directly with the Art Director developing book cover designs from conceptual to final stages. Also developed the branding of multi volume series. Fully prepared work for production and archived files into online database for use by sales and promotion.

3&Co. Design, New York, NY, 12/03-05/04
Design Intern

Assisted with design and production; participated in client meetings, and gained a thorough introduction to the field within an intimate design house setting.

Education

Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY, 09/01-12/04

BFA in Communications Design; Major: Graphic Design

RVCC, North Branch, NJ, 01/01-05/01

Visual Arts Curriculum

Skills

Proficient with InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, Quark XPress; knowledge of Dreamweaver, basic html; experienced with illustration, silkscreening and photography.

Interests

Art, design, playing music, cycling and nature; enjoying life and staying active.

References

Available upon request.